DIPARTIMENTO
INGEGNERIA DELL'INFORMAZIONE E
SCIENZE MATEMATICHE

ACCESS TO THE PREMISES OF THE DIPARTIMENTO DI INGEGNERIA DELL'INFORMAZIONE E SCIENZE MATEMATICHE (11/11/2019)

Personnel and visitors must comply with the "Regulations for the organization and emergency management within the buildings of the University of Siena" and the "Regulations for the improvement of safety and health at work of the University of Siena".

The opening time, unless changes due to special holidays, is Monday to Friday, 8:00 to 20:00.

During the opening hours of the building, only access to research laboratories is regulated by badge.

Outside opening hours, access is restricted to staff of the University of Siena, who has taken the course on emergencies.

The issue of the badge for the laboratories is authorized by the Director, at the beginning of the contract between the staff member and the University of Siena.

The issue of the badge for access outside opening hours is authorized by the Director, after the applicant has taken the course on emergencies.

Staff members can find the internal procedures for access management and the issuing of badges, in the web page <https://www.diism.unisi.it/it/modulistica%20interna>.

ACCESS TO THE LABORATORIES FOR TEACHING ACTIVITIES

Students involved in DIISM courses have access to the computer labs (rooms 143, 124, 146, 147) and the hardware lab (room 126), for lectures and lab sessions, only under the guide and responsibility of an instructor (art. 5 of the "Regulations for the improvement of safety and health at work of the University of Siena")
